

Birmingham is one of the youngest cities in Europe, which makes it an amazing place to be a student.

Living in Birmingham

Aston University
BIRMINGHAM UK

NCUK
THE UNIVERSITY CONSORTIUM

Over 8,000 acres of parks and open space

Home to Aston Villa and Birmingham City football clubs

“

I love living in Birmingham because it is such a diverse city. It is a city that can constantly surprise you as there is so much more to Birmingham than meets the eye. It's a multicultural city of music, art, culture and solidarity.

”

Birmingham will host the Commonwealth Games in 2022

Why Study at:

Gold-Rated University

by the Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF) 2017

Ranked in the top

25

for student satisfaction
(The Complete University Guide 2019)

TOP 50

in the world for international outlook

(Times Higher Education World University Rankings 2019)

2nd

in the UK for boosting graduate salaries (Economist, 2017)

1st

in the UK for value added

(Guardian University Guide 2020)

“

At Aston University I joined five different clubs. I was able to make friends in these clubs and experience different cultures

”

Dongkwan Kang

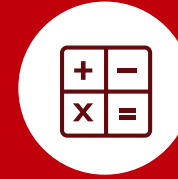

NCUK International Foundation Year

BSc (Hons) Accounting for Management at Aston University

Find Your Course

Business & Management

Finance

Chemical Engineering

Marketing

Law

Economics & Management

Pharmacy

Accounting & Finance

Business & International Relations

Plus many more courses available...

search

It's proven that taking a placement year helps to improve employability and Aston University encourages all undergraduate students to take one (70% of students undertake a placement year).

Aston University's average salary for students studying business related courses is 34% higher than the sector average five years after graduation (LEO 2018).