

Birmingham will host the Commonwealth Games in 2022

Living in Birmingham

UNIVERSITY OF BIRMINGHAM

NCUK
THE UNIVERSITY CONSORTIUM

Birmingham is one of the youngest cities in Europe, which makes it an amazing place to be a student.

Over 8,000 acres of parks and open space

“

I love living in Birmingham because it is such a diverse city. It is a city that can constantly surprise you as there is so much more to Birmingham than meets the eye. It's a multicultural city of music, art, culture and solidarity.

”

www.ncuk.ac.uk | www.birmingham.ac.uk

Home to Birmingham City and Aston Villa football clubs

Why Study at:

UNIVERSITY OF BIRMINGHAM

Gold-Rated University

by the Teaching Excellence and student Framework (TEF) 2017

UNIVERSITY OF THE

YEAR!
FOR GRADUATE
EMPLOYMENT

(The Times and The Sunday Times Good University Guide 2016)

RUSSELL GROUP

1 of 24

leading UK Universities in the prestigious Russell Group.

3rd

most targeted university by top employers in the UK
(High Fliers Graduate Market 2019)

£1 Billion

Invested into the 10 year campus investment plan

“ I chose to study at the University of Birmingham due to factors such as its campus, accommodation and the beautiful city centre. The environment that I studied in was extremely important for me. Also, the Business School is prestigious and well-qualified. ”

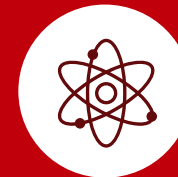

Yuming Zeng

NCUK International Foundation Year
BSc (Hons) Money, Banking & Finance
at the University of Birmingham

Find Your Course

Accounting & Finance

Chemical Engineering

Computer Science

Law

Education

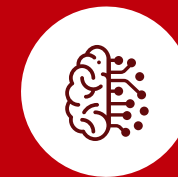

International Relations with Economics

Mechanical Engineering

Business Management

Civil Engineering

Plus many more courses available...

search

Old Joe is the world's tallest freestanding clock tower.

The University of Birmingham was the UK's first 'redbrick' university.

The university is home to the Barber Institute of Fine Arts which features works from Van Gogh, Botticelli and Monet amongst others.