PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

INTRODUCTION

The NCUK Master's Preparation (MP) programme is designed to prepare graduates or three-year diploma holders of recognised universities for study on specified courses at postgraduate master's or equivalent level at NCUK member institutions. The programme will be offered under the guidelines and regulations detailed in the current edition of the NCUK Academic Handbook.

NCUK Universities recognise the programme as meeting the English language entry requirements for international students, with progression contingent on students satisfying the performance criteria published in the NCUK Course Finder. The list of accepting universities can be seen on the university pages of the NCUK website.

Throughout the programme emphasis is placed on the integration of language learning, study skill development and the acquisition and/or re-orientation of subject knowledge. The philosophy permeating the delivery of the programme is that every teaching contact with a student is an opportunity to develop language and learning skills.

The programme has three routes:

- ⇒ Master's Preparation Enhanced is three terms in length and is designed for two groups of students: those who hold three-year diplomas plus work experience with a level of English equivalent to at least EAP grade E and graduates, or final year undergraduates, with an English language level equivalent to at least EAP grade E.
- ⇒ Master's Preparation consists of two terms and is for undergraduate degree holders or final year undergraduates with a level of English equivalent to at least EAP grade D.
- ⇒ Master's Pre-Sessional and is for undergraduate degree holders or final year undergraduates with a level of English equivalent to at least EAP grade D.

AIMS

The aims of the NCUK Master's Preparation programme are to:

- ⇒ To enhance the English language ability of graduates or diplomates to a level sufficient to enable them to communicate and study effectively and confidently at postgraduate level at a Western university.
- ⇒ To develop the academic skills and an understanding of the underlying philosophies and related capabilities required for successful study at postgraduate level in Western higher education.
- ⇒ To relate the student's existing subject knowledge to that of Western graduates in similar discipline areas.
- ⇒ To cultivate a commitment to good practice in academic work and in particular an awareness of the serious adverse implications of plagiarism.
- ⇒ To provide students with the necessary skills to enable them to develop as independent, autonomous learners including the demonstrated ability to undertake a significant individual research project.
- ⇒ To give students practical experience of different methods that may be used to assess their learning.
- ⇒ To introduce aspects of Western culture and enable an understanding of the policies, procedures and regulations affecting study in the West.
- ⇒ To develop learning skills and reflective learning through the various elements of the programme.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

On successful completion of this programme students should be able to:

- ⇒ Use English confidently in a Western academic environment and demonstrate a proficiency in English language to a standard equivalent to at least EAP grade C.
- ⇒ Learn effectively at master's level study.
- ⇒ Make effective use of a range of generic and subject specific study skills, language skills and information and communications technologies as well as self-directed study.
- ⇒ Conduct project work in appropriate subject areas including the use of primary and secondary data, the analysis of evidence and the presentation of findings.
- ⇒ Demonstrate an understanding of Western culture sufficient to aid rapid adjustment to living and studying in the west.

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

The Master's Preparation programme is designed to allow entry at three points during the academic year. This is to allow students who have different levels of English (and differing academic backgrounds) to enter at an appropriate level. The programme is scheduled so that all routes can finish at the same point, and where possible, students can complete the same assignments and exams at the same time.

The first term for Master's Preparation Enhanced students is the Preparatory Term. Assessments in this term do not count towards the final grade: they are formative. In the second term – the Core Term – Master's Preparation students join those on the Enhanced pathway. The Final Term is identical for Master's Preparation Enhanced and Master's Preparation students.

Master's Pre-Sessional students follow a modified version of the syllabus used for the Master's Preparation Enhanced and Master's Preparation. While elements of work done on the other pathways is incorporated into the Master's Pre-Sessional, they are tested differently. However, note that the final EAP examinations for Master's Pre-Sessional students are the same as those for Master's Preparation Enhanced and Master's Preparation students, and the examinations are taken at the same time.

Orientation to Western Study

All routes undertake this module for one term when they start their Master's Preparation programme. For Master's Preparation Enhanced this is in the Preparatory Term and for Master's Preparation, the Core Term. This key-skills module is usually undertaken at the start of the Master's Pre-Sessional.

Lectures

The Master's Preparation programme will be supported by lectures. Lectures also form the platform for tasks that contribute to the EAP grade. Where the centre also runs the Master's Preparation Enhanced and/or Master's Preparation routes it is recommended Master's Pre-Sessional students attend some lectures that are part of the subject module (usually the Management module) for those routes.

PROGRAMME GRADING

Students receive two overall grades for the Master's Preparation Programme. A grade from A – U for EAP and a classification of Distinction, Credit or Pass for Research Methods. The detailed descriptors used to assess EAP work are provided in the EAP syllabus.

The classifications awarded for the Research Methods module are summarised in the table below:

Research Methods Classification Summary
Grade	%	Criteria
Distinction	70 +	Excellent – exemplary execution of tasks. Objectives surpassed. Ingenuity demonstrated with creativity and skill.
Credit	60 - 69	Good – Competent work demonstrating ability to achieve objectives overall.
Pass	40 - 59	Adequate – ranging from a sufficient to a competent performance.

For information on the equivalencies of the NCUK EAP module to widely recognised English Language qualifications please see the entry requirements section of the NCUK website.

PROGRAMME DELIVERY

The Master's Preparation programme is designed to accommodate diploma and degree graduates, with varying levels of English language ability. All entry points are designed for part-time and full-time delivery. The syllabus presented in this document is divided into three terms for ease of reference: Preparatory Term, Core Term and Final Term. As a guide, each teaching week for full-time delivery will have an average directed study time of 20 hours, spread over a minimum of a 10-week term (including one week for assessments). Total learning activity including private study would be expected to exceed 40 hours per week. Hours referred to in this document are teaching hours (50 minutes per hour).

The Final Term project for Master's Preparation Enhanced and Master's Preparation students requires them to dedicate a minimum of 84 hours to independent study (this is not part of the programme's directed study time). It is expected however that students will spend considerably longer working on this aspect of the programme.

NCUK specifies minimum timetabled contact hours for its programmes but does not set a maximum class contact or total study time; it is recognised that many Study Centres will apply higher than minimum contact times to meet the learning needs of their students.

The duration of each term may vary according to the timing of local public holidays. Terms may be interrupted by periods of holiday where necessary.

The programme may be delivered face-to-face or in blended/online modes as agreed with the Study Centre at the time of accreditation.

MODULE CHOICES

Study Centres are not required to offer all the subject modules available on the Master's Preparation programme. Resources and student demand may dictate that Study Centres offer a smaller selection of subject modules. If Study Centres wish to add additional subject modules to their offering, they should inform NCUK well in advance, as the addition of some subject modules will require additional accreditation

CLASS SIZES

Class sizes will vary between each element of the Master's Preparation programme. However, EAP classes and pastoral care tutorials must not exceed 16 students per class/tutorial.

Subject class sizes may be varied according to the activity e.g. lecture, seminar or tutorial. The principle to be applied to timetabling and class size should be to give students the opportunity to experience different forms of learning and to maximise opportunities for small-group work and for the development of independent learning skills. In general, NCUK would not expect tutorial or seminar groups to exceed 16 students but class sizes for lectures may be larger.

Staffing of the programme should allow for some one-to-one contact for each student.
